GALES FERRY

The Children's day service entitled Season of Beauty, was given in the M. E. church, Sunday morning. Previous to the program, the children, the young daughter of Richard T. Slater, C. M., of the submarine base, and Mrs. Slater, was christened by Rev. G. H. Wright. The decoration of the altar were hanked laurel, ferns, and daisies, with peonies, delphiniums, and Mice in relief, with roses on the organ and table. The following programme was given:

Opening song, June Brings Children's Day, school; prayer, Rev. G. H. Wright; musical response, school; recitation, On Children's Day, J. Edmund Norman, Jr., and William McNaught; song, Praise the Creator, school; recitation, A Boy's Letter, Howard Chase; song, Mary Jones and Viola Riley; recitation, In God We Trust, class of boys; song and exercise, God is Love, boys and girls; recitation, Daisy Band, class of girls; song, In Sunshine and Shadow, school; song, Miss Gertrude Allen; exercise, What Shall We Bring to God's class of girls; song, June is in the Air, school; recitation, I Know God Cares, the beginners' class; recitation, The Bible the Children's Book, Mary Jones and Kith Main; song, Praise Him, school; recitation, A Rose and a Robin, Eleanor Waldman and Richard Lattimer; address to the children, Rev. G. H. Wright; offering for educational fund, school; recitation, Episcopal church, Other Children tables in the programme were: David Carter, G. E. Colver, Jr., Herman Chase, Harry Allen, Stanley Taylor, Richard Chase, Robert Wright, Margaret S. Col-ver, Ruth Fabel, Howard Chase, M. J. der Wilderman, Edith Fabel, M. Erickson, Dorothy Birch, Em-Beth Ben-net, Rose Norcross, Margaret Gates, Helen Louise Colver, Nellida Kleus, Gordon Manierre, Oliver Carter, Buldy Wright, with the Misses Mary and Madeline Birch and Laura Metcalf. Miss Jennie G. Perkins was organist.

G. E. Colver announced the invitation to this Sunday school to join the school of the churches of New London and surrounding towns Sunday next at two o'clock in that city, to march to the Sec-ond Congregational church and witness a pageant on the history of the Sunday school, since its organization. Plans were formulated to take the school of auto truck to New London on that day.

At the Epworth League service, Rev. Allen Shaw Bush spoke from the topic, Out and Out For Christ. A trio, David Carter, Stanley Taylor, and Alfred Erickson, sang, Let Us Forget.

The Gales Ferry Village Toy orches-tra gave Joseph Heyden's Kinder Sym-phonies in three movements, 1. Allegro, 2. Minuetto, 3. Moderato-Allegro-Festa, in the vestry of the M. E. church Satur-day evening at 7 o'clock. The toy in-struments played were: Rattle, and quail pipe, Edith Fabel; triangle, Rob-Fabel; cuckoo, Em-Beth Bennett; night-ingale, Dorothy Birch, Marjorie Gates, cymbals, Paul Miller, Rufus, Gordon Manierre; trumpet, David Carter, Stan-ley Taylor, Fred. The orchestra was conducted by Stanley Taylor. The man-dolin was played by Mrs. R. Irving Har-butt. The director was Caroline J. Freeman. The orchestra was assisted by two schools and a reader, Arthur H. Blackledge, of Norwich, sang a group of songs, 1. Miss Yon Collins, 2. Room and Night, 3. Day in Spring, Miss Free-man being at the piano. For an encore Mr. Blackledge sang The Anniversary.

Miss Freeman presented Miss Whitley of Norwich, who read from Jewish literature, Games and Gardens, by Myra Kelly. Another group of songs, Rous-ing Me, A Song, Miss Maria, and My Kitty, was sung by Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham, with Eastern Lullaby and The Road as encores. The entertain-ment was very pleasing, the orchestra played cleverly and there was a good attendance. It was given under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary society of which Miss Freeman is pres-ident and netted at good sum. Cream puffs, little cakes and lemonade were served.

Anthony Morris, of New York, a Yale graduate, was a visitor at the Yale quarters, Friday and Saturday, and called on friends.

Mrs. R. Irving Harbutt entertained Friday afternoon the Get Together club and friends.

Robert Dean of Groton, is spending some time with his grandmother, Mrs. George F. Dean.

Mrs. H. Irving Collins and daughter, Virginia, returned Friday from a visit with James Collins, county Y. M. C. A. secretary in New Haven.

Mrs. Doris Daugherty of New Lon-don was a guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Simmons.

Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham return-ed Friday evening from a visit in New York. Mrs. Buckingham was accom-ppanied by her mother, Mrs. J. Frank Clark, of Norwich.

At the graduating exercises of the school of Ledyard, held at Ledyard Center, last Thursday afternoon, two pu-pils from the Gales Ferry school were graduates, Stanley Taylor and David Carter. Through the courtesy of Cap-tain Frank D. Berrian, of the subma-rine base the children and their teacher, Mrs. Winifred Cropper, of Norwich, were conveyed to Ledyard Center by auto-struck. Mrs. Berrian provided transpor-tation for some of the parents in her automobile.

Fred Fable made a business trip to Shelter Island and Greenport, L. I. last week.

John Holmes of Glasgow, Scotland, has been spending some days at Ledyard House cottage on the bluff, with his sister, Mrs. James Martin, of Morriston. Mr. Martin, with a party of friends, motored here to spend Sunday at the cottage.

Beacon Falls—Notices were posted last week that the Beacon Falls Rubber Shoe company will resume operations in the mill room, June 16. Other depart-ments will resume in order as the tick-ets go through. The plant was shut down February 15, after running on a five and a half days' schedule.
